FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Isaiah 43:16-21 The mystery of the Passover will be made new.

Psalm 126 "The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy."

Philippians 3:8-14 Paul desires a share in the paschal mystery of the Lord.

John 8:1-11 No one is without sin except our merciful judge.

God "opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters," says Isaiah in the first reading. Thus, in a seemingly impossible situation, Jesus opens a way, not only for Himself, but for the woman accused of adultery. The Lord is indeed doing something new! As we listen to these sacred scriptures today, what second chances do you sense that God is presenting to you? How will you respond?

Apostle sent by God to Ireland, in your humility you called yourself a sinner, but you became a most successful missionary and prompted countless pagans to follow the Savior. Many of their descendants in turn spread the Good News in numerous foreign lands. Through your powerful intercession with God, obtain the missionaries we need to continue the work you began. Amen.

Feast of Saint Joseph: On Saturday March 19th, we celebrate the Foster Father of our Lord, Saint Joseph.

O St. Joseph, do assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me from your Divine Son all spiritual blessings through Jesus Christ, Our Lord; so that having engaged here below your Heavenly power I may offer my Thanksgiving and Homage to the most Loving of Fathers. O St. Joseph, I never weary contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press Him in my name and kiss His fine head for me, and ask Him to return the Kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, Patron of departing souls, pray for us. Amen.*

Almighty God, You alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant Your people grace to love what You command and desire what You promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Beloved of God,

“The Rubrics of bowing and genuflecting during the Holy Mass.”

Last week, you may recall, I spoke on “why we genuflect during the Holy Mass.” At the end of that reflection I wrote “More to come on private genuflecting versus public or genuflecting during Holy Mass.” So, since we are starting the training of Altar Servers (girls and boys), Junior Lectors, Lectors and Extra-Ordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, it is important that all the ministers, clergy and God’s holy people be aware and understand “what we do during Holy Mass” and “why we do what we do during Holy Mass.”

The GIRM, The General Instruction of the Roman Missal, which explains what, where, when and why regarding all things happening during the Holy Mass, “was canonically approved for use by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops on November 12, 2002, and was subsequently confirmed by the Holy See (Rome) by the decree of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments on March 17, 2003.” So when we have any questions about the choreography within the Holy Mass, the Structure of the Holy Mass and many other items, we refer to the GIRM... which says the following regarding genuflecting during Holy Mass...

#274. A genuflection, made by bending the right knee to the ground, signifies adoration, and therefore it is reserved for the Most Blessed Sacrament, as well as for the Holy Cross from the solemn adoration during the liturgical celebration on Good Friday until the beginning of the Easter Vigil.

During Mass, three genuflections are made by the priest celebrant: namely, after the showing of the host, after the showing of the chalice, and before Communion. Certain specific features to be observed in a concelebrated Mass are noted in their proper place (cf. above, nos. 210-251). (Underline added)

If, however, the tabernacle with the Most Blessed Sacrament is present in the sanctuary, the priest, the deacon, and the other ministers genuflect when they approach the altar and when they depart from it (processional & Recessional), but not during the celebration of Mass itself. (Underline added)

Otherwise all who pass before the Most Blessed Sacrament genuflect, unless they are moving in procession.

Ministers carrying the processional cross or candles bow their heads instead of genuflecting.

Above is what the Pope, Cardinals, Bishops, Priests, Deacons and Lay People are directed to do by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments during the Worship of the Almighty at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. (As you can see, there are multiple paragraphs [#], 399 in total, listed in the GIRM, each of them having multiple paragraphs within them. So the directions are extensive.) Beside the GIRM, which is also printed at the front of each MISSAL, which is used during the Holy Mass, the MISSAL also has printed in red RUBRICS which directs the Pope, Cardinals, Bishops, Priests, and Deacons regarding all their words, actions and postures during the Offering of the Holy Mass.

So why are we genuflecting to the Tabernacle only at the beginning and the end? Why are we bowing to the Altar during the Holy Mass? Why does the priest celebrant normally genuflect only three times during the Holy Mass? Why don't we genuflect every time we pass the Tabernacle? Why are we bowing every time we pass the Altar? Why don't the Altar Servers bow with the Cross and Candles?

All good questions... they will be answered in an upcoming column.

God love you... Father Fernan
