FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Acts 14:21-27 The missionaries Paul and Barnabas complete their journey.

Psalm 145 "I will praise your name for ever, my King and my God."

Revelation 21:1-5a Like bride and groom, God pledges everlasting love.

John 13:31-33a, 34-35 Jesus' followers live by a new commandment: love one another.

Today's Easter season scriptures paint a picture of God who loves us so much that the divine dwelling is now among us, with the human race. Jesus was the first physical manifestation of that new reality. As we listen to these Sacred Scriptures today, let us reflect on how God's dwelling is within each of us and how we manifest that to the world around us.

Novena to St. Gianna.....God, our Father, Thou hast granted to Thy Church the gift of St. Gianna Beretta Molla. In her youth she lovingly sought Thee and drew other young people to Thee, involving them in the care of the sick and the elderly. We thank Thee for the gift of this young woman so deeply committed to Thee. Through her example, give us the grace to dedicate our lives to Thy service, for the joy of our brothers and sisters. Glory be... Jesus, Redeemer of humanity, Thou called St. Gianna to become a doctor, a role she lived as a mission to comfort bodies and souls. She saw Thee in the sick, needy and weak.

We thank Thee because, through this servant, Thou revealed Thyself to us as "One who serves" and alleviates the sufferings of all men and women. As we treasure her example, may we become generous Christians at the service of our brothers and sisters, especially those with whom Thou deign to share Your Cross. Glory be... God, Sanctifying Spirit, Thou who love the Church as Thy bride, Thou poured into the heart of St. Gianna a share of Thy love so that she could give it to her family, cooperate with Thee in the wonderful plan of creation, and give life to new children who could know and love Thee. We thank Thee for this model wife and for her encouraging example. Grant us serene and Christian mothers who are committed to transforming our families into cenacles of faith, love, generosity, and service. Glory be... O God, Creator and Lover of the human family, Thou remained with St. Gianna when she painfully had to choose between her life and the life of the child she had awaited for so long. Trusting Thee alone and aware of Thy commandment to respect human life, St. Gianna found the courage to do her duty as a mother and to say "yes" to her baby's life, thus generously giving her own. Through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Jesus, and after the example of St. Gianna, inspire all mothers to welcome with love the seeds of a new life. Help us respect the gift of human life. Grant us the grace to find inspiration in St. Gianna, a model spouse and mother who, after the example of Christ, gave up her life for the life of others. Hail Mary...

- St. Vincent de Paul: St. Vincent de Paul, born today, April 24, 1581, was a French Roman Catholic priest who dedicated himself to serving the poor. He was canonized in 1737. He was renowned for his compassion, humility, and generosity and is known as the "Great Apostle of Charity". We thank our own society members who are also dedicated to helping those in need.

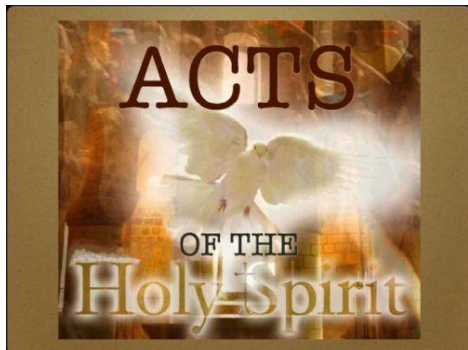

May God bless you always, Gina Mastrangelo, Parish Administrator

Beloved of God,

“There is something happening.”

This past Sunday, Saint Eugene parish was gifted with the presence of the Holy Spirit. The Third Person of the Blessed Trinity, whom Jesus promised He would send, (John 14:26, 15:26), descended upon the 43 young people who had prepared themselves through years of preparation in class, prayer and community service, to open their hearts to not only the Gift of the Holy Spirit Himself, but the seven gifts which the Spirit bestows. We remember them as Fortitude, Counsel, Knowledge, Understanding, Wisdom, Piety and Fear of the Lord. What a glorious day, weather-wise... what a divine day caught up in the presence of Almighty God.

It is important, though, that we not only limit the workings of the Spirit to the purely Sacramental. Recall, that I said how much these young parishioners had done in preparation. But did they prepare alone? Firstly, the parents of these souls had the gift of faith in their hearts to originally present them to God in Baptism and continue their learning about God through daily prayers taught at home and then either at school or religious education. Parents, without you, yesterday's explosion of the Spirit would not have been possible. Secondly, all the educators who participated in the our young ones religious formation had and continue to play such an important role, as they not only in religion class but throughout the day and after school, foster a sense of faith in the environment where the children learn. As we speak, so should we do. Lastly, all the clergy and religious who have been a part of the spiritual formation of our parish continue to leave their mark as in God's grace the seeds that were planted by them, and nurtured by God, are reaping 100, 50 and 30 fold before our eyes.

What do I mean? One of the lessons we offer the young ones as they are preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, which Bishop Gerald Walsh referred to as well, is that Confirmation is not Graduation. Meaning, they and all of us, as adults now in the faith having been fully initiated into the Faith, are just beginning our life in Christ and His Holy Catholic Church. So we are to use those gifts given by God in the Sacrament throughout our daily lives. But let us be clear. The gifts of the Spirit are not limited to those receiving or having received the Sacrament of Confirmation. All we have to do is look around to see where the fruits of the Spirit are. The Fruits... yes, the fruits. The effects of the Spirit. The Gifts are those given by God. The Fruits are what happens because the Spirit is present and working in and through us.

Last Wednesday, one of the 7TH Grade Religious Education classes put on a play. They asked if they could do it. They had prepared for a number of weeks. They had learned their lines. They even arranged for modest costumes. It wasn't long – maybe 15 minutes... but it was powerful. A few had many lines to learn and some only a few... but all participated and supported each other. When they had finished, all of us were deeply moved, the 7th Graders, the 6th graders who watched, Fr. Anthony, Ms. Mastrangelo and I. So much so, that I had to tell you about it. These 12 year old children asked if they could put on The Passion Play. You know, the Gospel we read together on Palm Sunday and Good Friday. The Trial of Jesus. The Last Supper. The Garden of Gethsemane. The Betrayal by Judas. The Court of Pontius Pilate. I have read the Passion for years. Meditated on it as well. But this simple, heartfelt rendition offered by the future of our parish and our Church, not only touched me... but gave me Hope. The Spirit is Alive and Thriving in the Parish of Saint Eugene. Let us continue through all our efforts to use those gifts given to us and let the fruits of the Spirit show that we are people of faith.

God love you... Father Fernan
