TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Wisdom 9:13-18b Our choices in life are timid compared to God's choices for us.

Psalm 90 "In every age, O Lord, You have been our refuge."

Philemon 9-10, 12-17 Paul baptizes a slave and then expects the slave's master to accept the slave as a brother.

Luke 14:25-33 Do you want to be a disciple? Renounce everything else, with no reservations, no regrets.

Today's first reading asks who can know God's counsel, or discern what the Lord intends. Indeed, who can comprehend this created world? But God's Holy Spirit gives wisdom, which we will need to help us understand what Jesus is asking us to do in today's Gospel. As we listen to these words of Sacred Scripture, let us pray for that wisdom and the will to act on it.

- Saint Mother Teresa – This Sunday, September 4, 2016, Mother Teresa will be canonized. Mother Teresa's middle name is Gonxha, which means "little flower" in Albanian. Even before entering her life into the religious sisters, Agnes Bojaxhiu, (her given name) showed signs of her passion toward Christ, she began celebrating her birthday on the day of her baptism, August 27. Captivated by stories of missionaries, Agnes left her family home in Skopje, (Macedonia) in 1928 at the age of 18 to join the Sisters of Loreto, Ireland. She wrote the Mother Superior and said, "I want to join your society, so that one day I may become a missionary sister, and work for Jesus who died for us all". Needing to learn English first, the young postulant spent six weeks in Loreto Abbey in Dublin, Ireland; she then set sail for India on December 1, 1928 to give her life to service. Mother Teresa opened the doors of mercy and charity for the poorest of the poor in Calcutta. It was her life's calling; what she considered to be an order from God. Mother Teresa directed her Missionaries of Charity to serve "the hungry, the naked, the homeless, the crippled, the blind, the lepers, and all those who felt unwanted, unloved, uncared for in society, people who have become a burden to society and are shunned by everyone". A few highlights of her career; 69 years in service, 4500, missionaries of Charity Worldwide, 124 Awards Earned, in 1979 awarded Nobel Peace Prize. Pope John Paul II said in October of 2003, "The cry of Jesus on the Cross, 'I thirst' (John 19: 28), expressing the depth of God's longing for man, penetrated Mother Teresa's soul and found fertile soil in her heart." Please join Pope Francis and Catholics around the world, as we celebrate the life of this wonderful woman, and missionary. Saint Mother Teresa, pray for us.

Beloved of God,

THE CANONIZATION OF SAINT MOTHER TERESA

“After their audience with the king the Magi set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary His mother. They prostrated themselves and did Him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way. When they had departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Rise, take the child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you. Herod is going to search for the child to destroy Him.” Joseph rose and took the child and His mother by night and departed for Egypt. He stayed there until the death of Herod, that what the Lord had said through the prophet might be fulfilled, “Out of Egypt I called my son.” When Herod realized that he had been deceived by the magi, he became furious. He ordered the massacre of all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity two years old and under, in accordance with the time he had ascertained from the magi. Then was fulfilled what had been said through Jeremiah the prophet: “A voice was heard in Ramah, sobbing and loud lamentation; Rachel weeping for her children, and she would not be consoled, since they were no more.” (Matthew 2:9-18)

From property to a blessing to the Divine. We are welcoming back all the children from their summer respite with their parents, families and friends to once again fill the halls and classrooms of the school as well as round out our community of faith as their join us in the aisles and sanctuary of our church. What a joy it is to see them once again... to hear their voices blended with ours during the Holy Prayers of the Holy Mass... to see them come forward to receive Holy Communion or bow their heads to be blessed before God. We don't consider them property to be used and discarded. They have become a part of the fabric of our lives. We know, though, at one time, and still in many parts of our world, that we did/still do consider these smaller "Temples of the Holy Spirit" chattel, disposable. I cannot begin to explain, but you mothers know what it is like to have this individual growing within you. How just 21 days after conception, noticing a separate heartbeat of this truly unique creation of God, this distinct soul, this child, not just of the parents, but most appropriately this "Child of God." People have interminably asked the question and pondered the possibilities of "Which came first... the chicken or the egg?" In reality it doesn't matter which came first... because the real question to acknowledge is "Who created the chicken or the egg?" God is the Creator. There is a misunderstanding long ago formed within the heart of people... that we are the creators. We are not the authors of Life. When a husband and wife in the loving act of freely giving themselves to the other, they open their hearts and lives to possibility of a love going beyond them in the gift from God of a Child. Gift from God because... no human male creates sperm... no human female creates eggs. God is the creator. God is the Author of Life.

Saint Mother Teresa worked to drive this point home. Through her efforts with the poor, she worked tirelessly to show the world that all of God's children, no matter how marginalized or discarded they may be by society, are just that God's children. The Nicene Creed which we pray every Sunday at Holy Mass teaches us that Our Blessed Lord "by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man." This does not mean that only since Our Lord took on humanity was it blessed, but it is a reminder of how sacred is the humanity that God created that it was worthy enough to be the tabernacle of the Divine Son of God.

The lesson of the Magi given above from Matthew's Gospel is also a reminder that through sin Evil has set itself against humanity, this creation of God that bears the Almighty's image. Not only will the Evil do everything it can to turn us away from God, foremost by deluding us into thinking we are god, but the Evil will set us upon each other. What better way than having us kill the other... beginning with the most innocent – the Child born or pre-born. The Evil smiles every time a child is killed in the womb.

Saint Mother Teresa... intercede on our behalf for an end to Abortion.
God love you... Father Fernan
