NATIVITY OF OUR LORD: CHRISTMAS

Isaiah 62:1-5 The Lord delights in you.

Psalm 89 "Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord."

Acts 13:16-17,22-25 Paul bears witness to Christ, the son of David.

Matthew 1:1-25 or 1:18-25 The genealogy of Jesus Christ, the Son of David.

In the word of God proclaimed this Christmas Eve, we truly hear "tidings of comfort and joy." The glorious day foreseen by Isaiah is at hand, when Heaven is wedded to earth as, in the birth of a Son, God declares us no longer "Desolate" or "Forsaken," but rather God's "Delight" and "Espoused." But, as always, God's word challenges us as well. Gabriel's message puts Joseph's faith to the test, as Joseph acts decisively and daringly to further God's purpose by giving Mary and the child, who is not his own, a home and a heritage. Thus Joseph challenges us to believe and trust, then dare to act, that God's saving plan may unfold. Let us open our hearts to the Christmas message of reconciliation, healing and salvation. O come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord!

DECEMBER 30TH - FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

JESUS, Son of God and Son of Mary, bless our family. Graciously inspire in us the unity, peace, and mutual love that You found in your own family in the little town of Nazareth.

MARY, Mother of Jesus and our Mother, nourish our family with your faith and your love. Keep us close to your Son, Jesus, in all our sorrows and joys.

JOSEPH, Foster-father to Jesus, guardian and spouse of Mary, keep our family safe from harm. Help us in all times of discouragement or anxiety.

HOLY FAMILY OF NAZARETH, make our family one with You. Help us to be instruments of peace. Grant that love, strengthened by grace, may prove mightier than all the weaknesses and trials through which our families sometimes pass. May we always have God at the center of our hearts and homes until we are all one family, happy and at peace in our true home with You. Amen.

Dear Parishioners; A blessed Christmas to all!

Loving God, help us remember the birth of Jesus.

That we may share in the song of the angels, the gladness of the shepherds, and the worship of the wise men. Close the door of hate and open the door of love all over the world. Let kindness come with every gift and good desires with every greeting. Deliver us from evil by the blessing which Christ brings, and teach us to be merry with clear hearts. May the Christmas morning make us happy to be thy children, and Christmas evening bring us to our beds with grateful thoughts, forgiving and forgiven, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

The Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph , December 30th

O Jesus, our most loving Redeemer! You came to enlighten the world with Your teaching and example, and to live the greater part of Your life with Mary and Joseph in their home at Nazareth. Thus You sanctified the family that was to be an example to all Christian families. Graciously receive our family, which is dedicated and consecrated to You this day. Protect it; guard it and establish it in holy fear, in peace, and in the harmony of Christian charity. By conforming ourselves to the model of Your family, may we all without exception attain to eternal happiness. Mary, Mother of Jesus and our Mother! By your intercession make this, our humble offering, acceptable to Jesus and obtain for us His grace and blessings. O St. Joseph, most holy guardian of Jesus and Mary! Assist us by your prayers in all our spiritual and temporal needs, so that we may be able to praise our Divine Saviour, Jesus, together with Mary and you for all eternity. Amen.

As we rejoice in the birth of Our Lord, Jesus, I pray for a blessed Christmas Season for you and your families. May God bless you always.

Gina Mastrangelo, Parish Administrator

Dear Beloved of God,

“And She gave birth to Her firstborn Son. She wrapped Him in swaddling clothes and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.”
(Luke 2:7)

What a life it could have been! “Then the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and he placed there the man whom he had formed. Out of the ground the LORD God made various trees grow that were delightful to look at and good for food, with the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and bad... The LORD God then took the man and settled him in the Garden of Eden, to cultivate and care for it.” (Genesis 2:8-15) The final gift towards perfection was when, “the LORD God said: ‘It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a suitable partner for him.’ So the LORD God formed out of the ground various wild animals and various birds of the air, and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them; whatever the man called each of them would be its name. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of the air, and all the wild animals; but none proved to be the suitable partner for the man. So the LORD God cast a deep sleep on the man, and while he was asleep, he took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. The LORD God then built up into a woman the rib that he had taken from the man. When he brought her to the man, the man said: ‘This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh.’” (Genesis 2:18-23) What a life it could have been! What a life it was... before sin.

Due to the sin of our first parents, Adam and Eve, this harmony with nature was lost. The beauty and ease of that Garden of Eden is a distant memory. We must work the land for our food rather than just caring for it. The accord which once existed between us and the animals has become enmity. Sin has cast us from our home and from our peaceful co-existence with nature. There is no room for us in the Garden of Eden, there is no room for us in Heaven with the Almighty... until that relationship fractured by sin, first by Adam and Eve and now daily by our own sins, is healed by He who did not know sin, Jesus Christ.

We know that the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, the Son of God, was sent by the Father to become like us in all things except sin. God took on our humanity... “though He (Jesus) was in the form of God, (He) did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, He emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, He humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross.” (Philippians 2:6-8) Being born in a stable is not simply a scene depicting the great humility of God. The birth of Our Savior is the first of many steps Our Lord is taking to heal the rift that sin has caused between us and nature, by being born in a stable, and between us and God, “becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross.”

Christmas, the Incarnation, is God’s first step towards making room for us. As we look forward to a new year in God’s grace will we continue the good work God has begun in us? Will sin be cast aside? Will holiness be the clothes we wrap ourselves in? Will there be room for Jesus in our hearts and homes?

A Blessed Christmas to you and yours.
