SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

Genesis 12: 1-4a The call of Abraham.

Psalm 33 “Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in You.”

2 Timothy 1:8b-10 “Bear your share of hardship for the Gospel.”

Matthew 17:1-9 Jesus is transfigured.

Just as God’s promise to Abraham indicated the greatness to come, so too was Jesus’ glory prefigured in his Transfiguration. As Saint Paul says, Christ Jesus “destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel.” As we hear these Sacred Scriptures proclaimed, let us heed the Words of God about the beloved Son, and listen to Him.

Emmaus Ministry for Grieving Parents: Of all the pains that life can hand us, arguably one of the most is the death of a child. As Jesus joined his distraught disciples on the road to Emmaus after his crucifixion, we ask him to join each of us in this ministry as we continue on our difficult journeys from grief to the healing peace that we, like Jesus' disciples, can find in the Eucharistic community. To meet the spiritual needs of Catholic parents whose children of any age have died by any cause; no matter how long ago, the Family Life Respect Life Office offers the Emmaus Ministry for Grieving Parents. A unique faith based program providing spiritual retreats for parents offered by grieving parents offers a safe place where you can find peace, comfort, and hope. There will be a one-day retreat at the Church of the Magdalene, 525 Bedford Road, Pocantico Hills, New York 10591 on Saturday, April 1. The cost is $25 per person, $40 per couple. To register online: www.emfgp.org/archny or contact Sue DiSisto at 646-794-3191.

Religious Education Lenten Project: Lent is the season of preparation for Easter. It starts on Ash Wednesday and ends on Spy Wednesday, lasting for 40 days. We prepare for Easter by fasting and practicing spiritual discipline during this time, to reflect on his sacrifices. Basically, Lent is a time for "Spring Cleaning" our lives while giving thanks to God and strengthening our relationship with him. We will again this year collect money through the Rice Bowl donations. If you should have any questions, or would like to donate, please do not hesitate in contacting me.

For Those In Need: The parish has been notified that we have a few items for seniors in need. We have a sit down walker with brakes, a three wheel walker large wheels, and two other walkers. If you are interested please call the church office.

May God Bless you always, Gina Mastrangelo, Parish Administrator

Lent IS A TIME TO GROW
CLOSER TO JESUS

Beloved of God,

Eucharist Heart of Jesus Litany – Part 5B

“Heart of Jesus in the Eucharist, sweet companion of our exile, I adore You.”

“And Jesus said, “Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died: this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is My flesh for the life of the world.”” (John 6:48-52)

In saying, “Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert,” Jesus is calling to mind to the thousands gathered the foundations of their faith, their scriptures, their religious and ritual experiences. For the Jewish people, their daily lives are centered on the Torah, the first five books of the Sacred Scriptures which they believe are written by Moses himself. Their daily practices in the fields, workshops or homes are centered on God from the cleansing of pottery and utensils (Matthew 15:2, Luke 11:38) to ritual cleansing (Exodus 19:10, 19:14, 29:4). And since Moses was the author of the Torah, his preeminence is key. “Since then no prophet has arisen in Israel like Moses, whom knew the Lord face to face,” (Deuteronomy 34:10) and by Jesus beginning His Bread of Life Discourse with this reference to Moses, Jesus is setting up in the minds of the Scribes, Pharisees, Sadducees and Holy People of God an implied comparison. “Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, and died.” Jesus is bringing the people to a new and deeper understanding of Who is the giver of the Bread of Life... “Amen, amen, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven.” (John 6:32) Jesus is bringing the people to a new and deeper understanding of Who is the Bread of Life... “I am the bread of life... I am the living bread that came down from heaven,” (John 6:48, 51a) and Moses’ role as compared to Jesus’.

Moses never called God “Father.” “Everything that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to Me, because I came down from heaven not to do My own will but the will of the One who sent Me. And this is the will of the One who sent Me, that I should not lose anything of what He gave Me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day.” (John 6:37-30) In the Bread of Life Discourse, Jesus is beginning to reveal His true nature to the Holy People of God. He, by mentioning Moses, is hinting to His pre-existence as the Son of God. Naturally the people are confused, “Is this not Jesus, the Son of Joseph? Do we not know His father and mother? Then how can He say, ‘I have come down from heaven’?” (John 6:42) This revelation of His Divinity is staggering the people. They are taken aback because they have known Jesus, His father, His mother, His brothers and sisters (Matthew 12:46, Mark 3:32) for years. Recall that later on a return to Nazareth, Jesus was not able to perform any miracles there because “no prophet is accepted in his own native place.” (Luke 4:20:30)

Jesus new teaching on through the Bread of Life Discourse is beginning to open the minds of the Holy People of God to the Eucharist... the Bread of Life... not just manna and “a food that perishes,” but seek “the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you.” (John 6:27)

More to come.

God love you... Father Fernan
