CHURCH OFFICE HOURS

The office will close on Wednesday, December 23rd at noon and will reopen on Monday, December 28th. May the birth of our Savior fill your hearts with love.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Micah 5:1-4a From Bethlehem shall come the ruler of Israel.

Psalm 80 "Lord, make us turn to You; let us see your face and we shall be saved."

Hebrews 10:5-10 Behold, I come to do your will.

Luke 1:39-35 Mary visits her cousin, Elizabeth.

Our Psalm refrain can be our prayer today; "Lord, make us turn to You; let us see your face and we shall be saved." As we hear God's holy word today, let us indeed turn to the Lord and see our loving God's face in the small town of Bethlehem, in young Mary and her cousin Elizabeth, and in all those whose lives intersect with ours every day.

Dear Parishioners;

A blessed Christmas to all!

Prayer to our Newborn Savior

Divine Infant Jesus, with Mary and Joseph I kneel down in devout worship as I gaze upon You lying in Your crib. You wished to enter the world as a child in order to prove Yourself to be a true Man; for Your need for rest and nourishment You prove that You have truly taken on human nature. You became human that I may be able to see you listen to You, imitate You, and unite myself to You. Even though You are God, You are now able to suffer for us, atone for our sins, and merit graces for our souls. It is through the flesh that man turns away from God; it is in taking on the flesh that You, our God, deliver us. But You became Man also that man may become like God. In exchange for the humanity which You take from us, You wish to make us share in Your Divinity by sanctifying grace, that You may take complete possession of us. May the mystery of Your birth bring me the grace to be born anew and live a new, Divine life, more free from sin and from great attachment to myself and creatures, a life for God alone. As it was Mary's joy to form You in her own body, may her joy now be to form You in my soul, so that I may become more like You. Jesus, I believe that the greatest proof of God's goodness and love toward us is His gift to us of You, His only beloved Son. All love tends to become like that which it loves. You loved man; therefore, You became man. Infinite love and mercy caused You, the Second Person of the most Holy Trinity, to leave the Kingdom of eternal bliss to descend from the throne of Your majesty, power and glory, to become a helpless child, to suffer and die for us, that we might live. In your crib I see the most wondrous love that ever was-the love of God humbling Himself so low to beg the love of our hearts. Give me the grace to love You in return with a deep, true personal love. I surrender to Your gentle saving influence my heart and mind and will, so that my life may be lived in You, and You may become my intimate daily Companion, Consoler and Friend.

God bless you always, Gina Mastrangelo, Parish Administrator

Beloved of God,

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him. Whoever believes in Him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.” (John 3:16-18)

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis has called for a Year of Mercy. What a joyous gift... the Mercy of God. Not because it is something new... just announced by the Holy Father, Pope Francis. Just as Our Blessed Lord would refer to “how things were at the beginning,” (Mark 3), so too should we understand this Year of Mercy as an attempt for us to understand what the very reason for Christmas really is. To quote the Grinch “with his Grinch-feet ice cold in the snow... puzzling and puzzling, how could it be so? It came with packages, boxes or bags... Then the Grinch thought of something he hadn’t before. What if Christmas, he thought, doesn’t come from a store? What if Christmas, perhaps, means a little bit more?”

A little bit more?? A whole lot more!! The Sacred Author, The Beloved Disciple was divinely inspired to offer us the words above... “For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son.” This giving began when the God the Son humbled Himself and “Behold, the virgin shall be with child and bear a Son and they shall name Him Emmanuel, which means “God is with us.” (Matthew 1:23)

And that is the reason for The Year of Mercy... to reveal the absolute love with which God the Father, Son and Spirit extended themselves... that we “might have eternal life.” And it is not just eternal life, but eternal life with the Most Blessed Trinity, Our Savior’s Holy Mother and all the Angels and Saints. No other gift rivals this gift given by Almighty God. May your gift in return simply be a pure and undivided love of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit exercised this year practicing and granting mercy to all your family and friends and others who may have wronged you. The Gift of Mercy you have been given, should be freely given as a gift to others. (Matthew 10:8)

A blessed Christmas to you and may God grant you peace and joy in this new year in His grace.

Fr. Matthew Fernan
