EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Isaiah 60:1-6 The glory of the Lord shines on all people.

Psalms 72 "Lord, every nation on earth will adore you."

Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6 The Gentiles are coheirs of the promise.

Matthew 2:2-12 The magi come with gifts of gold, frankincense, & myrrh

Listening to the readings proclaimed today, it will become apparent that God intends for the Good News of salvation to be shared by everyone. From the expansive vision of Isaiah to the radical inclusion of Saint Paul, we are to understand that the journey of the magi is one that we all can undertake. The signs are there, in the heavens and in God's word. Let us all pack our bags and seek the Lord wherever the journey takes us.

Dear Parishioners:

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany!

Father, we thank You for revealing yourself to us in Jesus the Christ, we who once were not Your people but whom You chose to adopt as Your people. As ancient Israel confessed long ago, we realize that it was not because of our own righteousness, or our own superior wisdom, or strength, or power, or numbers. It was simply because You loved us, and chose to show us that love in Jesus.

As You have accepted us when we did not deserve your love, will you help us to accept those whom we find it hard to love? Forgive us, O Lord, for any attitude that we harbor that on any level sees ourselves as better as or more righteous than others. Will You help us to remove the barriers of prejudice and to tear down the walls of bigotry, religious or social? O Lord, help us realize that the walls that we erect for others only form our own prisons!

Will You fill us so full of Your love that there is no more room for intolerance? As You have forgiven us much, will You enable us with Your strength to forgive others even more? Will You enable us through Your abiding Presence among us, communally and individually, to live our lives in a manner worthy of the Name we bear.

May we, through Your guidance and our faithful obedience, find new avenues in ways that we have not imagined of holding the Light of Your love so that it may be a Light of revelation for all people.

We thank You for Your love, praise You for Your Gift, ask for Your continued Presence with us, and bring these petitions in the name of Your Son, who has truly revealed Your heart. Amen.

May the newborn child strengthen our faith and love.

Beloved of God,

Meditations on the Epiphany of the Lord

“When the Magi had departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Rise, take the child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you. Herod is going to search for the child to destroy Him.” Joseph rose and took the child and His mother by night and departed for Egypt. He stayed there until the death of Herod, that what the Lord had said through the prophet might be fulfilled, “Out of Egypt I called my son.” When Herod realized that he had been deceived by the magi, he became furious. He ordered the massacre of all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity two years old and under, in accordance with the time he had ascertained from the magi. Then was fulfilled what had been said through Jeremiah the prophet: “A voice was heard in Ramah, sobbing and loud lamentation; Rachel weeping for her children, and she would not be consoled, since they were no more.” (Matthew 2:13-18)

Dear Mother Mary,

From the Cross, Your dying Son gave you the awesome gift and terrible burden of being Mother of us all... “When Jesus saw His mother and the disciple there whom He loved, He said to His mother, “Woman, behold, your son.” Then He said to the disciple, “Behold, your mother.” And from that hour the disciple took her into his home.” (John 19:26-27) You, Mary were not given one son to replace Your own, but symbolically given all of us. As Eve, the Mother of Humanity, betrayed herself as woman succumbing to the temptation of the Evil One by the wood of the tree in the Garden of Eden, You, Our Blessed Lady, are the New Eve, a spiritual mother of us all because You did not falter as You stood next to the wood of the cross. As Your Son took upon Himself all the sins of all humanity, past, present and future, You, O Holy Mother, took upon You all the sorrows of Your newly adopted children.

So, dear Mother, You feel the pain of Cain murdering Abel, You feel the sorrow of the barren Sarah, You feel the loss of wife of Uriah, You feel the horror of those lost in the flood, You feel the abandonment of Joseph as his brothers sold him into slavery, You feel the sorrow of Joseph’s father Jacob who thought he had been killed, You hear the “sobbing and loud lamentation; Rachel weeping for her children, and she would not be consoled, since they were no more,” You feel the terror of your ancestors living as slaves in Egypt, You are distressed when the newly freed Hebrews so quickly turn from the God of Moses to an image of a golden calf.

Dearest Mother, as You and Joseph heeded the entreaty of the Angel Joseph heard in his dream, “Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you. Herod is going to search for the child to destroy him.” (Matthew 2:13) You must have been weeping, inwardly feeling that “When Herod realized that he had been deceived by the magi, he became furious. He ordered the massacre of all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity two years old and under, in accordance with the time he had ascertained from the magi.” (2:16) You must be weeping now for all Your children, no matter what age, who die of cancer, other diseases and in other tragedies. You must also be weeping during these more than 40 years when Your children are legally killed within the wombs of their mothers.

Dearest Mother, protect all those precious souls sacrificed in abortion. Pray for their parents that they may be healed through the merciful heart of Your Son. Pray for us all, that we may protect all your children no matter how young, old, ill or infirm. Amen.
