SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER - DIVINE MERCY

Acts 5:12-16 Peter's faith in Jesus enables him to work signs and wonders.

Psalm 118 "Give thanks to the Lord for He is good, His love is everlasting."

Revelation 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19 He is the first and the last, the one who lives.

John 20:19-31 How blessed are those who have not seen but have believed.

As we prepare to listen to God's holy word today, let us listen in particular for language that speaks of the community. The apostles were "all together in Solomon's portico." Were not Thomas's doubts because he was away from the community at Jesus' first appearance? How important is it for our faith to be a member of a community of faith? Let us reflect today on our membership in this Church and how it helps us to be able to say with Thomas, "My Lord and my God!"

MEMORIAL CANDLES & BREAD & WINE

Interested in memorializing the Sanctuary Candle by the Tabernacle or for the Virgin Mary, Our Blessed Lady? These candles, which burn continuously, could burn for your specific intentions. If you are interested in having a loved one remembered or a special intention placed before God, please contact the rectory. An offering of $15.00 a week is requested.

DIVINE MERCY

The Divine Mercy Novena ends today.

O Lord, our God, we place all our trust in You, because You are Mercy itself. We repent of our sins and turn to You in mercy. We trust You to provide for our every need, according to Your will. Help us to forgive others as You forgive us. We promise to be merciful by our deeds, words and prayers. Though we have fears because of human weakness, we rely on Your infinite goodness and mercy. We entrust to Your mercy our very lives, our present situation and our uncertain future. We entrust to You the future of the planet, our Church, our nations, our families and all our needs. With loud cries we implore Your mercy on us and the whole world. Look upon us created in Your image and likeness. Form us in the Heart of Mary by the power of the Holy Spirit into living images of mercy. May all come to know the depth of Your mercy, and sing the praises of Your mercy forever. Amen.

A LETTER FROM THE CARDINAL

Dear Friends in the Lord:

The Archdiocese for the Military Services (AMS) was established by Pope Saint John Paul II in 1985, to provide the church's full range of pastoral ministries to those in the United States Armed Forces. The mission of the archdiocese is to "serve those who serve" by providing the same pastoral care and services as any other Catholic (arch) diocese, but to Catholics serving in the armed forces; enrolled in military academies; undergoing treatment at any of the 153 Department of Veterans Affairs' Medical Centers in the United States, Puerto Rico, and Guam; working in civilian jobs for the federal government beyond United States borders; and the families of these populations.

The AMS is the only source of Catholic chaplains for the United States military and Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers. Its endorsed priests and deacons are responsible for pastoral services to approximately 1.8 million.

While the salaries and retirement of VA chaplains are paid for by the government, the AMS receives no funding from the military or the government in support of programs and services vital to its mission and ministry, including vocations, evangelization and catechesis, the keeping of sacramental records, a tribunal, and veteran affairs.

Unlike a conventional (arch) diocese, the AMS has no parishes or parish registries. It has no weekly collections, relying solely on the generosity of private donations to support its programs and services.

Last year, Pope Francis told military ordinaries from around the world that "The role of military chaplains is to accompany and support (those in need) on the journey, to be a comforting and brotherly presence for them all." Your support of this national collection for the AMS will bring the gospel, sacraments, and other forms of spiritual support to the men and women who serve our country and defend our freedoms, including parishioners and families from our own archdiocese.

With prayerful best wishes for a blessed year of mercy, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan - Archbishop of New York

Dear Parishioners:

“Divine Mercy, gushing forth from the bosom of the Father, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, greatest attribute of GOD, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, incomprehensible mystery, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, fountain gushing forth from the mystery of the Most Blessed Trinity, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, unfathomed by any intellect, human or angelic, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, from which wells forth all life and happiness, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, better than the heavens, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, source of miracles and wonders, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, encompassing the whole universe, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, descending to earth in the Person of the Incarnate Word, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, which flowed out from the open wound of the Heart of JESUS, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, enclosed in the Heart of JESUS for us, and especially for sinners, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, unfathomed in the institution of the Sacred Host, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, in the founding of Holy Church, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, in the Sacrament of Holy Baptism, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, in our justification through JESUS CHRIST, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, accompanying us through our whole life, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, embracing us especially at the hour of death, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, endowing us with immortal life, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, accompanying us every moment of our life, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, shielding us from the fire of hell, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, in the conversion of hardened sinners, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, astonishment for Angels, incomprehensible to Saints, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, unfathomed in all the mysteries of GOD, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, lifting us out of every misery, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, source of our happiness and joy, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, in calling us forth from nothingness to existence, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, embracing all the works of His hands, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, crown of all of god's handiwork, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, in which we are all immersed, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, sweet relief for anguished hearts, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, only hope of despairing souls, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, repose of hearts, peace amidst fear, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, delight and ecstasy of holy souls, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, inspiring hope against all hope, I trust in You. Eternal GOD, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself. Amen.” From the Diary of Sister Faustina.

The Annunciation of the Lord: A tradition, which has come down from the apostolic ages, tells us that the great mystery of the Incarnation was achieved on the twenty-fifth day of March. It was at the hour of midnight, when the most holy Virgin was alone and absorbed in prayer, that the Archangel Gabriel appeared before her, and asked her, in the name of the blessed Trinity, to consent to become the Mother of God. Let us assist, in spirit, at this wonderful interview between the angel and the Virgin. This date is usually March 25, but since it had fallen on Good Friday this year, the church has moved the date to April 4 this year.

Cardinal's Appeal: The Cardinal Appeal is continuing. The goal for our parish is $95,500.00. Your gift to the Appeal helps to fund many charities and assist our elder religious after their retirement. To date our parish has received $ 53,851.00 in pledges and gifts towards the 2016 Cardinal's Appeal from 193 families. Your generosity is greatly appreciated, and as always, thank you!

Confirmation: Our confirmation candidates from our school and religious education classes will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation on Sunday, April 17, at 3:00PM. Bishop Gerald T. Walsh will be officiating. Practice will be held on Thursday, April 14th at 7:00 PM. Parents and Sponsors do not need to attend.

May God bless you always:

Gina Mastrangelo, Parish Administrator

O God, Who hast commanded us to honor our father and our mother; in Thy mercy have pity on the soul of my father, Frank Mastrangelo Jr., who died April 5, 2010, this his sixth anniversary in heaven, forgive his trespasses; and make me to see him again in the joy of everlasting brightness, through Christ our Lord. Amen

Beloved of God,

The picture to the left is not the usual one that is depicted for the grand feast of Divine Mercy. That usually shows Christ pointing to His Heart with one hand while the other is in the position of blessing... as the priest does at the end of Holy Mass. Coming from the Heart of Our Lord are the two colored rays, red and white, recalling us to the Crucifixion when blood and water flowed from the side of Our Lord after one of the Soldiers thrust a lance in His side as well as illustrating in the birth of the Sacraments of the Holy Eucharist (red and the shedding of blood) and Baptism (white and the flowing of water). We are welcomed into the Heart of God by Christ directing us to His own. We are blessed by God as we contemplate on the image of Christ as Divine Mercy with His hand raised in blessing. We are brought, as well, back to the Holy Mass as Jesus has assumed the position of the priest in offering the blessing of Almighty God.

The picture to the left is a monstrance. It is receptacle for holding the Blessed Sacrament and liturgical means employed in the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament (usually on First Fridays and Perpetual Adoration of the Holy Eucharist). The Blessed Sacrament, Holy Communion, becomes the Body and Blood of Christ during the Holy Mass in the miracle of Transubstantiation – where although retaining the look, taste, feel and smell of bread and wine, the bread and wine is changed into and really becomes the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ. As the picture of Divine Mercy is giving us a representation of the presence of Jesus in human form with the rays coming forth from Him, the Holy Eucharist really is the presence of Jesus. The artist in the rendition above is giving us a great insight into not only the Real Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament but also that this Presence of Christ in Holy Communion in truly Divine Mercy.

First Fridays are obviously once a month. Perpetual Adoration is a rarity (but we are blessed at Saint Eugene to have it Monday through Friday). But, the possibility of being caught in the sacrificial and baptismal rays as well as the blessing from Our Savior Jesus is an everyday and sometimes twice a day occurrence in almost all parishes through the Daily Holy Mass. The Holy Mass, the gift given to us by Jesus at the Last Supper, is Divine Mercy. When the priest elevates and reveals the changed bread and wine, the real Body and Blood of Jesus, we are being caught up in those consecrating rays of Divine Mercy. We are being blessed by Jesus Himself. Divine Mercy has been given to us and remains with us always until the end of time in the Holy Mass.

As we celebrate this great feast today, let us know that we do not only have the chaplet revealed to us part of our prayer to Divine Mercy, but that we have Divine Mercy Itself in the Holy Eucharist in every daily Holy Mass. Come, visit and be caught up in Divine Mercy.

God love you... Father Fernan
