Happy Mother's Day

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Acts 7:55-60 Stephen manifests love of Jesus to the end.

Psalm 97 "The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth."

Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20 Jesus is coming soon.

John 17:20-26 The Lord prays for us: May we be one, united in the love of Father and Son.

In today's reading from the Acts of the Apostles, we hear about the martyrdom of Saint Stephen. We ourselves may not be called to such a sacrifice, but it seems that more and more people in our world today are losing their lives because of their faith. As we hear these sacred scriptures today, let us keep them in our minds and in our prayers as we pray for the grace to bear witness to the gospel in our own lives.

MAY IS DEVOTED TO MARY, OUR BLESSED MOTHER

The month of May is the "month which the piety of the faithful has especially dedicated to Our Blessed Lady, and is the occasion for a "moving tribute of faith and love which Catholics in every part of the world pay to the Queen of Heaven". During this month Christians both in church & in the privacy of the home offer to Mary from their hearts an especially fervent and loving homage of prayers and veneration. In this month the benefits of God's mercy come down to us from her throne in greater abundance.

We thank Father Fernan for his dedication to all of his parishioners, and for guiding us as we all try to follow in the footsteps of Our Lord. May God Bless You both Fathers, Ad Multos Annos.

We need them in life's early morning, we need them at its close, we feel their warmth clasp of true friendship, we seek them when tasting life's woes. When we come to this world we are sinful, the greatest as well as the least, and the hands that makes us pure as angels, is the beautiful hand of a priest. At the altar each day we behold them, and hands of a king on his throne, are not equal to them in their greatness, their dignity stands alone. For there in the stillness of the morning 'ere, the sun has emerged from the East, there, God rests between the pure fingers, of the beautiful hand of the priest. And when we are tempted and wander to pathways of shame and sin, 'tis the hand of a priest will absolve us not once but again and again within. And when we are taking life's partner, other hands may prepare us a feast, but the hand that will bless us and unite us, is the beautiful hand of a priest. God bless them and keep them all holy, For the Host which these fingers caress, What can a poor sinner do better, than to ask Him who chose thee to bless, when the death dew on our eyelids are falling, May our courage and strength be increased, By seeing raised O'er us in blessing, The Beautiful Hands of a priest.

- Saint Eugene School: Our Eighth Grade Class will be sponsoring a Bake Sale on May 14th- after the 5PM Mass and May 15th after the 8AM, 10AM, and 12PM Mass. - Boy Scouts: A big thank you to our Boy Scouts who planted flowers all around the Saint Eugene Campus. Thank you as well to Mrs. Donna Ragusa, all the pack leaders and their parents.
- Wedding Jubilees: Couples celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary anytime during 2016 are invited to attend the Annual Golden Wedding Jubilee Mass with Cardinal Dolan at the Cathedral of Saint Patrick, Saturday, June 25th at 1:30 pm or Sunday June 26th at 2:00 pm. Pre-registration is mandatory. If you are interested in participating in either of the Masses please contact me at 961-2590. The closing date to register for the Mass is Tuesday, May 24th. The event is sponsored by the Family Life, Respect Life office of the Archdiocese of New York.

May God bless you always, Gina Mastrangelo, Parish Administrator

Beloved of God,

Ascension of Our Blessed Lord Jesus Christ to Heaven

"And now I will no longer be in the world, but they are in the world, while I am coming to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name that You have given Me, so that they may be one just as We are." (John 17:11)

"But now I am coming to You. I speak this in the world so that they may share My joy completely." (John 17:13)

"Father, they are Your gift to Me. I wish that where I am they also may be with Me, that they may see My glory that You gave Me, because You loved Me before the foundation of the world." (John 17:24)

As we have heard for the past few weeks, that Christ after His Resurrection appeared to the Apostles on many occasions, Mary Magdalene, the disciples on the Road to Emmaus, and thousands of others. "Jesus' final apparition ends with the irreversible entry of His humanity into divine glory, symbolized by the cloud and by heaven, where He is seated from that time forward at God's right hand." (Catechism of the Catholic Church #659) "So then the Lord Jesus, after He spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took His seat at the right hand of God." (Mark 16:19) The Church is clear to distinguish the Ascension as referring to Jesus' "humanity." We have heard from Our Blessed Lord at the Last Supper in the Prayer He offers for His Apostles and all the people of God, "that they may be one just as We are." The Father, Son and Spirit were, are and always will be one. Even though the Son of God took on humanity, in time, His divinity already remained glorified and yet veiled by His humanity. A hint of His glory was given at the Transfiguration... "After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And He was transfigured before them; His face shone like the sun and His clothes became white as light." (Matthew 17:1-2) Through the Transfiguration, we are given a glimpse into the Glory of the Son and the Unity of the Blessed Trinity, because as Christ Himself said, "so that they may be one, as We are one," (John 17:22b) so is Jesus telling us of the relationship between He and the Father, Their Oneness, as well as the ultimate desire of God Father, Son and Spirit... "that they may be one just as We are." Jesus' coming was so that we could return. Jesus' coming was so that we could follow. Jesus' coming was so that He could engage in conversation with Thomas at the Last Supper... "Jesus said, "Where I am going you know the way." Thomas said to Him, "Master, we do not know where You are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me." (John 14:4-6) Jesus' coming was so that He could reveal that He is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Reveal all this so that we could finally... "be one just as We are" so that "where I am they also may be with Me," and by this divine intimacy between Jesus and us, then "they may share My joy completely." All these actions over time are not simply to save us and bring us into the presence and glory of God in heaven, but that God may rejoice in us being with Him, "they may share My joy completely."

Also, as Christ ascended into Heaven, and then Our Blessed Lady, the Virgin Mary was assumed into heaven, we too, if we follow Christ in life and suffering with Him in death, will follow Him up to heaven, where our humanity will share in the joy of the Son of God and fulfilling His desire... "I wish that where I am they also may be with Me." May all our actions mirror the life of Jesus. May all our thoughts be guided in humility by Jesus. May all our words reflect the heart of Jesus. May we follow His Way. May we live His Truth. May we merit His gift of everlasting Life... so that we all may be in one in God and God's joy may be complete.

God love you... Father Fernan
