Malachi 3:19-20a Lo, the sun of justice will rise!
Psalm 98 "The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice."
2 Thessalonians 3:7-12 Instead of keeping busy, some are minding the business of others.
Luke 21:5-9 When will the end of the world arrive?.

In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus warn his disciples about what to expect in the last days: earthquakes, famines, and plagues. Yet He says that "not a hair on your head will be destroyed." In the first reading Malachi also announces the coming day of wrath. Yet he too promises safety for those who fear God's name. Let us listen for this "sun of justice with its healing rays" and ponder God's love and mercy in the midst of even the greatest cataclysms.

CHURCH SAFETY AND SAFE ENVIRONMENT

Last week was the Feast of All Saints. Many asked as to why the side door for the school was not unlocked as well as the entrance into the church from the school hallway. The reason is that the school was open, and due to Safe Environment regulations we are not to have the doors open or the bathrooms available while children are in session. There is a bathroom in the sacristy that is available. Safety for all of our parishioners and students is first and foremost. Thank you.

Dear Parishioners:

- Thanksgiving Food Drive: As we are in the month of November and the Thanksgiving Season, let us remember those who are less fortunate than ourselves. The parish food drive, working with our Saint Vincent DePaul Society, will be November 1-20. We are collecting nonperishable items. They can be placed into the containers located at the church entrances. All the food collected will be distributed to Saint Joseph's Food Pantry in Yonkers. We will also be collecting frozen turkeys (10-14lbs.) and hams to be distributed to the Sharing Community. We will be collecting those on Tuesday morning, November 22, in the lower parking lot. Give thanks in all circumstances: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. 1 Thessalonians 5:18.

- Saint Eugene Boy Scout Troop 25: Our Boys Scouts will be selling beautifully decorated Christmas Wreaths on before and after the masses on Sunday, November 27, Saturday, December 3rd and Sunday, December 4th. The cost is $20.00.
- Saint Eugene Legion of Mary: The legion will have their annual giving tree in the church beginning on November 27th. Please take an ornament off of the tree and assist them as they bring joy to those in need. The gifts will be distributed to various organizations who are in need.
- Christmas Pageant: On Sunday, December 18th we will have Christmas caroling and then the Christmas Pageant. We are looking for children to be angels and shepherds in our living crèche. If your child is interested please fill out the pageant forms which are located at the table in the front of the church and at the entrances.
- Election Day, November 8th: The following is a statement from Archbishop Joseph E. Kurtz of Louisville Kentucky, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops.

“The American people have made their decision on the next president of the United States, members of Congress as well as state and local officials. I congratulate Mr. Trump and everyone elected yesterday. Now is the moment to move toward the responsibility of governing for the commoner political party, but rather, let us see the face of Christ in our neighbors, especially the suffering or those with whom we may disagree. “We, as citizens and our elected representatives, would do well to remember the words of Pope Francis when he addressed the United States Congress last year, “all political activity must serve and promote the good of the human person and be based on respect for his or her dignity.” Yesterday, millions of Americans who are struggling to find economic opportunity for their families voted to be heard. Our response should be simple: we hear you. The responsibility to help strengthen families belongs to each of us. “The Bishops Conference looks forward to working with President-elect Trump to protect human life from its most vulnerable beginning to its natural end. We will advocate for policies that offer opportunity to all people, of all faiths, in all walks of life. We are firm in our resolve that our brothers and sisters who are migrants and refugees can be humanely welcomed without sacrificing our security. We will call attention to the violent persecution threatening our fellow Christians and people of other faiths around the world, especially in the Middle East. And we will look for the new administration’s commitment to domestic religious liberty, ensuring people of faith remain free to proclaim and shape our lives around the truth about man and woman, and the unique bond of marriage that they can form. “Every election brings a new beginning. Some may wonder whether the country can reconcile, work together and fulfill the promise of a more perfect union. Through the hope Christ offers, I believe God will give us the strength to heal and unite. “Let us pray for leaders in public life that they may rise to the responsibilities entrusted to them with grace and courage. And may all of us as Catholics help each other be faithful and joyful witnesses to the healing love of Jesus. - Let us all pray for peace during this time of transition, and as with anything that troubles us, let us turn to our Blessed Mother and Her son for guidance.

May God bless you always; Gina Mastrangelo, Parish Administrator

Beloved of God,

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him.” (John 3:16-17)

It has been a joy over the years to offer meditations on various themes, prayers or litanies in my weekly columns, i.e. the Hail Mary, the Our Father, the Cantic of Mary (Magnificat), the Litany of Our Blessed Lady, and the Retranslation of the Roman Missal. As we are completing the Year of Mercy, let us turn our attention to the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus...

Heart of Jesus in the Eucharist, sweet companion of our exile, I adore You.

Eucharistic heart of Jesus, I adore You.

Solitary heart, humiliated heart, I adore You.

Abandoned heart, forgotten heart, I adore You.

Despised heart, outraged heart, I adore You.

Eucharistic heart of Jesus, unknown by people, I adore You.

Eucharistic heart of Jesus, loving our hearts, I adore You.

Eucharistic heart of Jesus, desiring to be loved, I adore You.

Eucharistic heart of Jesus, patient in waiting for us, I adore You.

Eucharistic heart of Jesus, eager to grant our requests, I adore You.

Eucharistic heart of Jesus, desirous of being sought, I adore You.

Eucharistic heart of Jesus, source of new graces, I adore You.

Eucharistic heart of Jesus, wishing to speak to our souls, I adore You.

Eucharistic heart of Jesus, sweet refuge of the hidden life, I adore You.

Eucharistic heart of Jesus, teaching the secrets of divine union, I adore You.

Eucharistic heart of Jesus, heart of Him who sleeps yet ever watches, I adore You.

Eucharistic heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.

Jesus, victim! I wish to console You.

Jesus, victim! I wish to unite myself to You.

Jesus, victim! I wish to immolate myself with You.

Jesus, victim! I wish to annihilate myself before You.

Jesus, victim! I wish to forget myself to think of You.

Jesus, victim! I wish to be forgotten and despised for love of You.

Jesus, victim! I wish not to be loved or understood save only by You.

Jesus, victim! I will be silent to listen to You.

Jesus, victim! I will leave myself, to lose myself in You.

Jesus, victim! Grant that I may thus quench You thirst.

Eucharistic heart of my Jesus, whose Blood is the life of my soul, I will no longer live, but live, You, alone in me.

Eucharistic heart of Jesus, burning with love for us, inflame our hearts with love for You.

May the heart of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament be praised, adored and loved with grateful affection, at every moment, in all the tabernacles of the world, even until the end of time.

Jesus, meek and humble of heart, make my heart like unto Yours.

You are invited to prayer these invocations in preparation of our meditations beginning next week.

God love you... Father Fernan
