SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sirach 15:15-20 There is set before you fire and water, life and death.

Psalm 119 "Blessed are they who follow the law of the Lord!"

1 Corinthians 2:6-10 Eye has not seen, ear has not heard what God has prepared for us.

Matthew 5:17-37 or 5:20-22a, 27-28, 33-34a, 37 So it was said to your ancestors; but I say this to you.

Our readings today address the laws that God has given us to live by. The First Reading and the Psalm present them as fulfilling and life-giving. Then along comes Jesus in the Gospel, and while He upholds the law, He calls us to a higher standard. No longer is it enough to observe the letter of the law. As we hear these words proclaimed today, it might be good to reflect on one area in our life where we can do more, and to pray for the grace to do so.

Dear Parishioners:

Welcome, Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan: We are very happy to have our Archbishop, Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan preside at the 10:00 Mass today. One of the many responsibilities of the Cardinal is to make visits to a number of the parishes in the Archdiocese throughout the year. We welcome you, Your Eminence, and hope that this will be the first of many visits to our wonderful parish and we ask that you will keep our church and her parishioners in your daily prayers.

Renew & Rebuild: Last weekend we formally announced the Renew & Rebuild Campaign in our Parish. All parishes in the Archdiocese will be participating in this Campaign. We are in Phase One of the Campaign along with 50 other parishes. Renew and Rebuild is a $200 million initiative for the parishes of the Archdiocese of New York. Our Parish goal is 1,200,000.00. As of today we have $550,000.00 in pledges. Please pray and join us in the very important parish initiative.

Boy Scout Troop 25: Boy Scout Troop 25 will have a Valentine Bake Sale today after the Masses. This will help defray their cost of the National Jamboree next summer.

Feast Day Celebrations: Please join us on Sunday March 12, for our annual Saint Patrick and Saint Joseph celebrations. Please fill out the flyers which are located in the entrances of the church and return them ASAP. Reservations are required. There will be no admittance at the door on the day of the event.

Religious Education / Inclement Weather: Just a reminder, if there is any form of winter precipitation that should occur on Wednesday afternoons or evenings, which may interfere with Religious Education, or safety on the roads, please watch news 12 for cancellations.

Working Boys Center, Quito Ecuador: This spring parishioner and graduate of Saint Eugene School, Michael Smith Jr., a junior at Fordham Prep will travel for two weeks to Quito, Ecuador on June 21, with several classmates and founder Fr. John Halligan, SJ. The students will have the opportunity to work at the center, tutor and utilize handyman skills to assist those in need. Fordham Prep is looking for donations to assist in this endeavor. If you are interested in making a donation, you can make a donation online at <https://fordhamprep.org/servicestrips> and please mark it on behalf of Michael Smith, or send the check to the rectory made payable to Fordham Prep, and send it to my attention, and I will forward them to Fordham. All donations need to be in by May 1st. Thank you, and may God bless all those who are participating in this wonderful service project.

Thank you, Thank you: We are very grateful for all of our clergy, Father Fernan, Father Anthony, Deacon Duffy and Our Mill Hill Associates; Fr. Brian Coffey and Fr. Terence Lee, who serve us, anoint us, bring us the sacraments, and pray with us. In these winter months let us remember all priests who travel to bring the faithful the sacraments. Please pray for them, thank them, we are lucky to have them. God Bless our Priests!

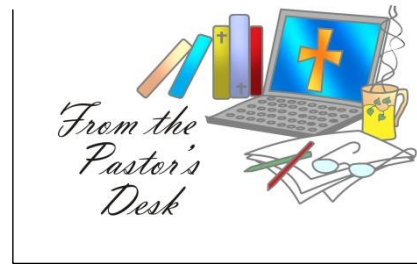

O Jesus, our great High Priest, hear my humble prayers on behalf of our priests. Give them a deep faith, a bright and firm hope and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of their priestly life. In their loneliness, comfort them. In their sorrows, strengthen them. In their frustrations, point out to them that it is through suffering that the soul is purified, and show them that they are needed by our Church; they are needed by our souls; they are needed for the work of redemption. Amen

May God bless you always; Gina Mastrangelo, Parish Administrator

Beloved of God,

The Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes

“Consider your own calling, brothers. Not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. Rather, God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise, and God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong, and God chose the lowly and despised of the world, those who count for nothing, to reduce to nothing those who are something, so that no human being might boast before God.” (1Corinthians 26-29)

Born in 1844 to desperately poor parents, the eldest of nine children, and quite sickly herself with asthma as the first born, Bernadette Soubirous found herself gathering wood with one of her sisters and her friend. At the Gave River, the others ventured in first, while Bernadette remained behind ever cautious about her health, not wanting to make her cold any worse by walking through the frigid waters.

There are no coincidences in God.

As the others wandered off for more than fifteen minutes Bernadette in her own words continues, “I had hardly begun to take off my stocking when I heard the sound of wind, as in a storm. I turned towards the meadow, and I saw that the trees were not moving at all. I had half-noticed, but without paying any particular heed, that the branches and brambles were waving beside the grotto. I went on taking my stockings off, and was putting one foot into the water, when I heard the same sound in front of me. I looked up and saw a cluster of branches and brambles underneath the topmost opening in the grotto tossing and swaying to and fro, though nothing else stirred all around. Behind these branches and within the opening, I saw immediately afterwards a girl in white, no bigger than myself, who greeted me with a slight bow of the head; at the same time, she stretched out her arms slightly away from her body, opening her hands, as in pictures of Our Lady; over her right arm hung a rosary.” Our Holy Mother appeared to Bernadette seventeen more times. This beautiful Lady spoke of Penance, Praying to God for sinners, and the need of the priests to build a chapel on the site. She also, when Bernadette, “begged her once more to do me the favour of telling me her name...” according to Abbe Trochu’s book, “the apparition, who, until then, had kept her hands joined, opened her arms and lowered them... then she joined her hand again and brought them close to her breast... raising her eyes to Heaven” she said, “I am the Immaculate Conception.” Bernadette, who seldom attended school, was not educated in the faith, and was unable to read, had no idea what the “Immaculate Conception” was. But her parish priest did.

Again there are no coincidences in God.

The Feast of the Annunciation, when Angel Gabriel appeared to Holy Mary and asked to be the Mother of God, had not only long been celebrated by the Catholic Church but was officially on the Church calendar as March 25 in the 7th Century. In God’s wisdom, the Holy Mother of God, on the day in which the Holy Church celebrates the Annunciation to Mary of being the Mother of God, She announces to the world through the “weak and lowly” that She is the Immaculate Conception. Holy Mary is pivotal in Salvation History. On the Feast of the Annunciation, another major announcement was made... “I am the Immaculate Conception.”

Mary opens her arms to embrace all God’s children... draw close to her especially through the Holy Rosary.

God love you... Father Fernan
