

THE PARISH OF SAINT EUGENE

SEPTEMBER 24, 2017 – TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Isaiah 55:6-9 The ways and thoughts of God are above our own.

Psalm 145 "The Lord is near to all who call upon Him."

Philippians 1:20c-24,27a Saint Paul rejoices that to live is Christ and to die is to gain.

Matthew 20:1-16a "The last will be the first, and the first will be the last."

While the First Reading and Gospel focus on God's great generosity and mercy toward us sinners, Saint Paul urges us to conduct ourselves "in a way worthy of the Gospel of Christ." As we listen to these sacred scriptures proclaimed today, let us ponder how we may reflect God's lavish love in our own lives.

With autumn coming upon us, please let us remember all those who are in need of a meal or food on the table. There are many who are struggling in our own community. Please remember those who are in need. We are in need of non-perishable food items. (Cereal, soup, pasta, etc.) Please place these items in the baskets at the entrances of the church.

The recipe for the chicken legs and thighs is as follows: Wash and clean chicken, season, place chicken in large tray, add ½ cup water. Bake at 375 degrees skin side down for 45 minutes, turn chicken over, season and bake skin side up for an additional 45 minutes. When the chicken is done sprinkle with paprika. Please drain all juices and transport the chicken in Ziploc bags

We serve our people as well as the Sharing Community in Getty Square. If you are able to cook but not deliver, please contact either Walter Whitmore (914) 779-1826 or David Fabi at hotfabi@optonline.net.

Dear Parishioners:

- Feast of the Archangels: September 29 is the Feast of the Archangels;

Michael, Gabriel and Raphael. The liturgy celebrates the feast of these three archangels who are venerated in the tradition of the Church. Michael was the archangel who fought against Satan and all his evil angels, defending all the friends of God. He is the protector of all humanity from the snares of the devil. Gabriel (Strength of God) announced to Zachariah the forthcoming birth of John the Baptist, and to Mary, the birth of Jesus. His greeting to the Virgin, "Hail, full of grace," is one of the most familiar and frequent prayers of the Christian people. Raphael (Medicine of God) is the archangel who took care of Tobias on his journey. O God, who dispose in marvelous order ministries both angelic and human, graciously grant that our life on earth may be defended by those who watch over us as they minister perpetually to you in heaven, through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. – from the USCCB.

Beloved of God,

We just had our Primary's and our many levels of government will once again be renewed through the process of our free election. As the process continues with the bombardment of ads, we must address what it means to Vote Our Conscience. Conscience. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) states... "Man has the right to act in conscience and in freedom so as personally to make moral decisions. "He must not be forced to act contrary to his conscience. Nor must he be prevented from acting according to his conscience, especially in religious matters." (1782)

What is the conscience? "Conscience is a judgment of reason whereby the human person recognizes the moral quality of a concrete act that he is going to perform, is in the process of performing, or has already completed. In all he says and does, man is obliged to follow faithfully what he knows to be just and right. It is by the judgment of his conscience that man perceives and recognizes the prescriptions of the divine law." (CCC 1778) Also, "Moral conscience, present at the heart of the person, enjoins him at the appropriate moment to do good and to avoid evil. It also judges particular choices, approving those that are good and denouncing those that are evil. It bears witness to the authority of truth in reference to the supreme Good to which the human person is drawn, and it welcomes the commandments. When he listens to his conscience, the prudent man can hear God speaking." (CCC 1777) It is important to note that the conscience of the human person is first to realize that as we are created by the Divine we are intimately connected to Our Creator and the inner voice we hear ought not to be driven by selfish desires, personal gain, or political motives, but must be informed by the God who is speaking to that inner place where we are called to pray. (Matthew 6:6) This call to listen not to society often makes us think we are being limited in freedom. But as Saint Paul wrote in his Letter to the Galatians, "For you were called for freedom, brothers. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." (5:13)

We are, therefore, obliged to listen to our conscience in all things. But not a conscience that is improperly formed, meaning not informed by God. "(CCC 1783) Conscience must be informed and moral judgment enlightened. A well-formed conscience is upright and truthful. It formulates its judgments according to reason, in conformity with the true good willed by the wisdom of the Creator. The education of conscience is indispensable for human beings who are subjected to negative influences and tempted by sin to prefer their own judgment and to reject authoritative teachings. (CCC 1784) The education of the conscience is a lifelong task. From the earliest years, it awakens the child to the knowledge and practice of the interior law recognized by conscience. Prudent education teaches virtue; it prevents or cures fear, selfishness and pride, resentment arising from guilt, and feelings of complacency, born of human weakness and faults. The education of the conscience guarantees freedom and engenders peace of heart. (CCC 1785) In the formation of conscience the Word of God is the light for our path, we must assimilate it in faith and prayer and put it into practice. We must also examine our conscience before the Lord's Cross. We are assisted by the gifts of the Holy Spirit, aided by the witness or advice of others and guided by the authoritative teaching of the Church."

What it comes down to is, that no matter what we feel, what makes us happy, what we want to do, or what society says is okay... we are bound to follow a conscience that has been informed only by God and His Holy Church.

Placing ourselves before the Lord's Cross, putting ourselves in the presence of God to be assisted by the Holy Spirit, and listening to the Word of God as taught us by our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, let us examine our consciences. Stealing is wrong, even if your conscience tells you it is okay. Missing Mass on Sunday's is wrong, even if your conscience tells you it is okay. Sexual Relationships outside of Marriage are wrong, even if your conscience tells you it is okay. Marriage is only between one male and one female, even if your conscience tells you that's not true. Lying is wrong, even if your conscience tells you it is okay. Showing your parents a lack of respect is wrong, even if your conscience tells you it is okay. Abortion is wrong, even if your conscience tells you it is okay. Adultery is wrong, even if your conscience tells you it is okay. Contraception is wrong, even if your conscience tells you it is okay. Cheating at school or work is wrong, even if your conscience tells you it is okay. Living together is wrong, even if your conscience tells you it is okay.

So when you make your daily choices, for your families and your children, remember to truly follow your conscience... that conscience which is being taught by the word of God, with the assistance of the Holy Spirit, in the presence of the Lord's Cross.

God love you... Father Fernan
